

August 1, 2018

Director's Corner

Angela T. Baldree, MLS

I just returned from Baltimore, MD, where I attended the American Association of Law Libraries annual meeting. What a wonderful city. I'm not even going to attempt to describe the food - there are no adequate adjectives. Baseball fans will not be disappointed in Baltimore. Camden Yards is every bit as majestic as you would expect. Babe Ruth's birthplace is also open for tours. His mother chose to give birth in her father's house because she and her husband lived atop a tavern and didn't want to bring their baby into the world above a loud tavern. This little gem probably gets lost in all the attractions of the city, but is well worth the short walk from the ballpark. The museum actually has home video footage, taken by a spectator in the stands, of his called home run during the 1932 World Series.

Hollywood director and Baltimore native John Waters was our keynote speaker. For those who have seen his movies, you can only image the tone of his speech. Full of raunchy, foul language about Hollywood, politics, and everything in between, it kept the audience in stitches. Did you know if you give a prison guard a dirty look, you will be written up for the violation of aggressive eyeballs? Remember that next time someone stares you down in line at Kroger. You can say, "Stop with the aggressive eyeballs, please."

eFiling

August's Brown Bag Lunch Program

Franklin County Clerk of Court experts will identify valuable resources hosted on the Clerk's website. Helpful tips for access and maximizing those resources will also be showcased. More importantly, procedures to electronically submit (eFile) documents to the county's Court of Common Pleas and 10th District Court of Appeals will be featured in step -by-step details.

Join us on August 15, 2018, at 12:15 pm. Space is limited and registration is required by calling or stopping by the circulation desk. Participants may received one general CLE credit.

LexisNexis Training

Only Opportunity This Year

Join us as LexisNexis trainers help you make sense of the endless amounts of information available in legal research. The session will focus on refining your search, citation services, research history, and much more.

Only two sessions – 11:30 and 1:00 -- will be offered on August 29, 2018. Each session is limited to six people. Participants may receive one general CLE credit.

New Books

Minnie Ozbeytemur

Recently we added Understanding Animal Law and Assistance Animal Law to our collection.

Understanding Animal Law covers a wide range of topics including veterinary malpractice, wildlife law, and custody issues. The book also touches on how animal law could affect criminal law, insurance law, and estate planning.

Assistance Animal Law has already been checked out! This is a simple guide to what an assistance animal is. It helps explain the difference between a guide dog, therapy pet, companion animal, and many other new categories being used today.

Stop in today and check out these great books along with all the other resources the library has to offer!

Franklin County Law Library
369 S. High Street, 10th Floor
Columbus, OH 43215
614.525.4971
614.525.4978 (fax)
lawlibrary.franklincountyohio.gov
FCLL-Info@franklincountyohio.gov

Email Us Your Questions!

STAY CONNECTED

