

Franklin County Law Library

2019 Brown Bag Lunch Series

July—November

July 10, 2019 Sealing And Expungement Laws

With sealing and expungement laws amended in recent months, the staff of the FCMC Self-Help Center will break down all you need to know.

August 7, 2019 The Need to Promote and Defend Fair and Impartial Courts

An overview of present-day threats to judicial independence and the lawyer's duty to act to protect the rule of law.

September 11, 2019 Working with Sovereign Citizens

Staff from the Supreme Court of Ohio will discuss ways to handle requests from sovereign citizens. The target audience for this program will be court personnel who receive requests based on legal misinformation.

October 9, 2019 The Pioneers Book Discussion

Judge Schneider leads a discussion on David McCullough's latest book. The book expounds on the development of the Norwest Territory—Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, and Wisconsin

November 6, 2019 Retirement for Lawyers: An Initial Look

Virginia Macali will discuss how the definition for retirement is changing, success factors for attorneys, and lifestyle considerations.

Class size strictly limited to 24

Reservations are required

Bring your own brown bag lunch

Classes run from 12:15-1:15

Participants may receive 1 general CLE credit for all programs except the book discussion.